Vietnam Cities Targets For Enemy Mortar Fires

SAIGON (AP) — Enemy rockets smashed into the center of Saigon for the first time in two months today and mortars hit more than a dozen other cities and allied installations in a fifth straight day of widespread enemy attacks.

Heavy ground fighting also was reported at half a dozen points.

Military communiques reported 45 Vietnamese civilians were killed and 117 wounded in the rain of more than 500 rockets and mortars that hit Saigon and cities to the northwest and south. A Japanese news correspondent, Tatsuo Sakai, 33, also was killed in the Saigon attack, becoming the 19th correspondent to die in the war. Only five Americans were reported wounded in the widespread shelling.

An American soldier was fatally shot in the back while cycling in downtown Saigon. The shooting touched off a running motorcycle gun battle that left a South Vietnamese soldier and one of the three Vietnamese assailants wounded. The wounded assailant was later captured. The two other men escaped.

The intensified pace of the war included shelling and ground attacks against at least six allied bases blocking invasion routes into Saigon and a fifth straight day of heavy fighting for control of a road 40 miles northwest of Saigon. The road is a vital supply route for American forces astride a key Viet Cong infiltration corridor leading from Cambodia.

A senior U.S. officer said the stepped up fighting across the country—with more than 1,400 enemy troops reported killed since last Sunday—could be the start of the long-awaited third Viet Cong offensive. But he qualified this by adding that "It's too early to make an assessment."

Upwards of 10,000 persons greeted the Pope at the airport as the blue and white Avianca jetliner completed the long journey from Rome, bringing the pontiff to the 39th Eucharistic Congress.

Steel-helmeted troops and police encountered trouble containing the shouting crowds lining the road leading out of the airport area to the city. The guards pushed at the people who pushed back. A small black dog ran alongside the Pope's limousine barking at people but soon also disappeared in the crowd.

The plane appeared over Bogota at 10:07 a.m., and circled the city to give the pontiff a view of the 8,600-foot high Colombian capital nestling on a vast plain between two Andean ranges.

Pope Paul Greeted By Latin Americans

BOGOTA, Colombia (AP) — Pope Paul VI, arriving on the first papal visit to Latin America, knelt on the concrete runway at El Dorado Airport here today and kissed the ground. He then rose and turned to receive the greeting of President Carlos Lleras Restrepo of Colombia.

"People of Latin America: our greeting, our affection and our prayers," the Pope said in fluent Spanish in replying to the president's welcome.

Waving to the crowd, the Pope then made his way to his limousine, but a crowd surged forward and the frail pontiff seemed about to be overwhelmed by a veritable sea of hands reaching for him. Security guards moved in quickly, however, and pushed the crowd away.

The skies were almost overcast and the temperature stood

Demand Council Action

UNITED NATIONS, N.Y. (AP)—The United States, Britain, France and four other countries demanded today that the U.N. Security Council condemn the Soviet Union and its Warsaw Pact allies for armed intervention in Czechoslovakia. They asked for an immediate withdrawal without violence or reprisals.

The seven submitted their demand in a resolution to the Security Council as it resumed debate in emergency session on the Czechoslovak crisis. Joining the big three western powers were Canada, Brazil, Denmark and Paraguay.

In its final form the resolution was along lines advocated by U.S. Ambassador George W. Ball, who has led the fight in the Council for strong action against the Soviet Union.

The Western powers recognized that the resolution would be subject to the big power veto of the Soviet Union. But they hoped for as many as 13 votes—a majority that would have a maximum impact both on the Soviet Union and world opinion.

Ball, speaking in behalf of the resolution, declared: "We must reaffirm the rights to self-determination of the people of the Czechoslovak People's Republic."

The council met in emergency session for nearly five hours Wednesday night without any break for dinner.

Any resolution faces an almost certain Soviet veto and this was foreshadowed by Soviet delegate Jacob Malik's bitter opposition to any U.N. discussion of the issue at all.

Malik was impassive and, for most of the session Wednesday, wore dark glasses.

His performance lacked fire and Britain's Lord Caradon commented that the Russian diplomat had the council's "compassion" because it realized his "disgust at having to defend such a disgraceful act. No wonder he carried so little conviction."

"Your compassion is in vain, Lord Caradon," Malik retorted. "I am proud that here in this council I defend a just cause."

Malik insisted that the Soviet Union and its allies had moved into Czechoslovakia at the invitation "of the government of that state. It is the government of that state which requested aid from its allies."

At no time did he identify the persons who sent the alleged invitation and Ball retorted "the Soviet armed forces were not invited into Czechoslovakia by anybody—they are uninvited guests."

Czechs Ignore Plea For Calm to Protest Action

Charolais-Angus Beef Is Best in Livestock Show

One of the big livestock shows at the Missouri State Fair is the carcass show. The prize winning steer in the show was exhibited by Miss Rocky Taylor, Chillicothe. The Charolais-Angus cross tipped the scales at 1,093 pounds and dressed out 712 pounds. The steer, graded choice minus, had a loin area of 13.88 inches with 51.4 lean cuts.

The steer was bought by Pat Rergauer, Pepper Mill Restaurants of Columbia and Jefferson City, for $800.

A Hereford-Charolais, owned by John Balman, Chula, Mo., was the reserve champion steer and was sold to Gene Knipp Oldsmobile in Jefferson City for $500. It weighed 1,130 pounds and with carcass weight put the scales at 730.

The champion barrow, owned by Richard Lamasters, Middletown, Mo., $ 206 pound Hampshire, went for $280 to the Dwayne Grismore of Livestock Feed and Meat News Service, in Kansas City. It dressed out at 151.4 pounds and had a loin eye area of 5.20 inches with 64.07 lean cuts.

Reserve champion swine carcass was a 230 pound Duroc, owned by Lyndle Vanshike, Bethel, Mo., and was sold to North Pile, sales manager for Hales-Hunter Feeds, Marshall. It dressed out at 175.3 pounds, had a loin area of 5.36 inches and 63.40 per cent lean cuts.

Robert Tjaden, Camp Point, Ill., exhibited the champion sheep carcass which went to George Schmalshof, the Camp Point Elevator and Al Smith, Camp Point Seed Co., for $125. The 90-pound Suffolk dressed out at 48 pounds with a loin eye area of 2.48 inches.

Reserve champion, a Southdown, weighing 80 pounds, had a carcass weight of 46 pounds with a 2.23 eye loin area. George Moyer of the Safeway Stores, Sedalia, purchased the carcass for $110.

The attendance for 1966 has shown a continued decrease each day, with Wednesday showing an unofficial decrease of 1,778. The unofficial attendance figures for Governor's Day had been reported at 26,130 as compared to Wednesday in 1967, which had 27,908. The unofficial attendance for the first five days of the Missouri State Fair nine-day exposition, "Showcase '68," shows an unofficial decrease of 11,108, the total figures for 1968 being unofficially at 175,251 and compared to 186,359 in 1967.

High school bands on the grounds Thursday are from Waverly, Shelbina, Slater, Malta Bend, Archie, Kearney, Palmyra, Paris and Norborne. Thursday was Kansas City, St. Louis and Sedalia Day, known through the years as "Big Thursday." Delegations from those cities attended the fair and had a part in horse racing at the mile track.

Several races were dedicated to those cities and presentation of the winner's trophy was

Local Firm Apparent Low Bidder

The Howard Construction Company, Sedalia, was the apparent low bidder for 1.932 miles of highway improvement and construction to be carried out on U.S. 65 from Ninth Street to the south city limits.

Bids were opened today in Jefferson City with the Howard Co. turning in a bid figure of $1,020,970.

The second and only competitor for the contract was the W. J. Menefee Construction Company, also of Sedalia.

According to Leland D. Fletcher, chief of the office of Surveys and Plans, the bids will be reviewed by the chief engineer of the Missouri State Highway Commission, M. J. Snider.

From this point, bid or bids will be submitted to the Highway Commission itself for award or rejection, which is based on the recommendation of the Chief Engineer.

The work will include guttering, paving, and general reconstruction of the presently existing highway.

Eight Missourians Saw Russian Action

KIRKSVILLE, Mo. (AP) — Eight Missourians were under the protection of the U.S. State Department in Prague Wednesday.

All have notified relatives of their safety. They were to be transported by train to Frankfurt, Germany, Thursday after being confined to their hotel in Prague.

New Violence Is Feared As Mob Faces Russians

PRAGUE (AP) — Czechoslovaks massed today on Vaclavske Namesti, Prague's main square, in a violent demonstration against the Soviet-led occupation and the arrest of their reform-minded Communist chief, Alexander Dubcek.

Ignoring requests by the clandestine Prague radio to maintain calm to avoid giving the foreign soldiers an excuse for further violence, a crowd of about 20,000 shook their fist at the Russians and shouted: "Russian murderers go home." They called for Dubcek's release.

Shots were heard from the square. It could not be determined immediately whether the soldiers were aiming at demonstrators or loosing warning shots into the air.

Soviet tank troops, who had been covering all approaches to the square since their arrival Wednesday, immediately closed all bridges across the Vltava River, which divides the city.

The move came as Czechoslovak Communists, reacting to the occupation by 200,000 Russian and Kremlin-line satellite troops, convened in an extraordinary party congress that its liberal leadership had originally scheduled to open Sept. 9.

This was a last-ditch attempt to force the troops to leave through political pressure.

The clandestine proliberal radio announced 927 delegates met at 11:20 a.m. Though the broadcast did not specify the site, the delegates had been urged to go to the liberal-controlled CKD factory on the outskirts of Prague.

Under arrangements that had been made by Dubcek, 1,500 members would have been on hand for the September meeting. In that session it had been expected he would oust conservative opponents from the ruling party Presidium and the Central Committee.

The seven Central Committee members who have declared loyalty to the Soviet-led occupation troops, tried to shift today's meeting to the party-owned Praha Hotel.

Soviet tanks and armored cars guarded the approaches to the hotel. Several black limousines were parked outside.

The proliberal station broadcast warnings to congress delegates not to go to the hotel, which it said was a trap.

The calling of the congress was another attempt to discredit the pro-Soviet members of the Presidium, who include Slovak party chief Vasil Bilak and Dr. Kolar, a former head of economic planning.

The proliberal radio this morning mentioned Rude Pravo

No Change Is Noted By Doctors

WASHINGTON (AP) — Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower continued to show increased evidences of heart "irritability" today but Army doctors said his over-all condition is unchanged and still critical.

The irritability mentioned in the latest bulletin first appeared Wednesday night and refers to a weakening in the nerves that operate the heart muscles.

This morning's report by the doctors at Walter Reed Army Hospital added that the term also means extra beats or irregularity in the heart rhythm.

"In spite of his long illness," said the medical report, "he has remained cheerful and continues to see members of his immediate family for brief periods daily. His vital signs remain stable and his over-all condition must be viewed as unchanged but still critical."

The report said that the 77-year-old Eisenhower continues to rest comfortably and has been in no pain.

Last night's report said: "Gen. Eisenhower has again shown some increase of heart irritability since this afternoon's bulletin. He is presently resting comfortably and his vital life signs are stable."

Earlier in the day doctors reported that a new drug had appeared to be effective in controlling the spasms.

The drug is a synthetic substance called lidocaine, chemically related to the pain killer novocaine, but more powerful.

Although it has not been approved by the Food and Drug Administration for general cardiac use, it is under extensive clinical investigation.

A researcher for the National Heart Institute said the general tone of scientific reports so far on its use to control heart rhythms is that "it has been very effective when used properly and most effective when used early in the course of the cardiac problem."

Ann Landers

Marital Guidance Offers A Solution

Dear Ann Landers: I wish to comment on the letter from "Starvation Diet" — the man whose sex life was terrible. He blamed her and she blamed him.

For ten years my husband and I had the same problem. It was neither frigidity on my part nor clumsiness on his part. It was simply that his attitude toward sex was primitive and mechanical and I felt I was being used to satisfy his animal passions. It took two years of counseling to set us straight.

Sex is the highest form of communicating love between woman and man. It should be an act of giving, for both parties. A woman must feel that she is an object of love and not just a convenient escape valve for releasing sexual impulses.

I urge Mr. Starvation Diet to take some quiet walks and examine his deepest motives. I am willing to bet that if he changes his attitude and approaches his wife with unselfish love and takes the time to be gentle and considerate he will find himself graciously received — not rejected. A good sexual relationship can make a marriage heaven. A poor one can make it hell. — ONE WHO HAS KNOWN BOTH

Dear One: Amen.

Dear Ann Landers: I recently went to a doctor who ordered me to take some laboratory tests. I was told I'd be notified of the results. One week passed and I heard nothing so I called and asked about the tests. I was informed that they were "in the mail."

Five days elapsed and nothing arrived so I called again. I was told, "The post office must have lost them."

I am now mad at the doctor because I think he lied to me. I want to change doctors and I have asked for my medical records. I was told, "It is not ethical for a doctor to give a patient medical records."

I discussed this with a friend who is well-versed in medical ethics. He said, "The doctor is right."

Do you think it is fair that I should have to take all those lab tests over just because the doctor doesn't want to give me my medical records? And why is it unethical for a doctor to give them to me? Please explain. — MAD AT CROAKERS

Dear Mad: It is indeed unethical for a doctor to give a patient his medical records. The reason is obvious. For example, if the physician should recommend the "surgical excision of multiple lipomata" it might frighten the patient to death. Another physician would know that this procedure is no big deal.

Your doctor should, however, furnish you with a report of your lab tests. You have a right to know how the tests turned out. If they were lost in the mail the doctor has an obligation to replace them.

Nixon Counts on Help From Gov. Rockefeller

NEW YORK (AP) — Richard M. Nixon is counting on the campaigning help of his defeated rival for the GOP presidential nomination, New York Gov. Nelson A. Rockefeller.

The GOP standardbearer headed into a meeting today with Rockefeller confident the New York governor will become a full-fledged backer of the Republican ticket.

If he does, it would help Nixon win the support of the more liberal Republicans who backed Rockefeller for the presidential nomination.

Speaking from an auto roof in front of his New York apartment Tuesday night, Nixon told boosters welcoming him home from his first national trip: "Tomorrow, I'm going to meet with the leaders of the party in New York and we expect to get their help."

In addition to conferring with Rockefeller in the apartment building where they both live, Nixon also sought to recruit Sen. Jacob K. Javits, R-N.Y.

And, he scheduled a session with Republican Sen. Edward Brooke of Massachusetts and Howard Baker of Tennessee.

Nixon told supporters that the week and a half of campaigning and private conferences since his nomination has assured him the campaigning help of Govs. Ronald Reagan of California; James A. Rhodes of Ohio and Raymond Shafer of Pennsylvania. Reagan also challenged.

In addition, he said, Sens. Everett M. Dirksen and Charles L. Percy of Illinois are putting their weight behind the Nixon campaign.

"In the past four days, we have made more progress than has ever been made in a political campaign in getting the leaders of the Republican party behind the ticket so we can go after the Democratic vote and the independent vote," Nixon said.

The homecoming wound up a day that began with breakfast at the Ohio State Fair with Rhodes and included a visit to Walter Reed Hospital in Washington, where former President Dwight D. Eisenhower lay gravely ill.

"He has the will to live and it is the will to live that has been a factor without which he would not have survived," Nixon said of the man whom he served as vice president for eight years.

Key To Hubert's Victory

CHICAGO (AP) — Hubert H. Humphrey's chances for a first ballot nomination at next week's Democratic National Convention could hinge on a dozen large delegations where nearly 750 votes are either held by favorite sons or uncommitted. The Associated Press survey showed today.

The latest AP tally of solid first ballot strength, based on primary results, public pledges and AP delegate surveys, gives Humphrey 852½ votes—still more than 450 away from the 1,312 needed for the nomination. Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy has 453½ and Sen. George S. McGovern has 32½. Only solid support is counted, not those leaning to a candidate.

But most of those who lead the major uncommitted or favorite son blocs are considered favorable to Humphrey.

This includes seven favorite sons: Gov. John B. Connally of Texas, with 104 votes; Gov. John J. McKeithen of Louisiana, 36; Gov. Buford Ellington of Tennessee, 51; Gov. Dan K. Moore of North Carolina, 59; Gov. Robert E. McNair of South Carolina, 28; Gov. Mills E. Godwin Jr., of Virginia, 54; and Sen. George A. Smathers of Florida, 57.

Also considered favorable to the vice president are the dominant figures in three other important states: Chicago Mayor Richard J. Daley in Illinois, where 92 votes are uncommi-ted; Gov. Richard J. Hughes of New Jersey, where 51 votes are uncommitted; and National Chairman John M. Bailey in Connecticut, where 35 votes are uncommitted.

The other two big blocs of uncommitted delegates are in the California delegation led by Assembly Speaker Jesse Unruh, where 142 are uncommitted, and in New York, where 66½ are uncommitted. Both groups supported Sen. Robert F. Kennedy before he was assassinated.

In addition, there are still large groups of uncommitted votes in states such as Michigan, Indiana, Nebraska, Alabama, Arkansas, Georgia and the District of Columbia, where the Rev. Channing Phillips is currently listed as a favorite son.

Altogether, the uncommitted vote in the newest AP poll stands at 821½ with 449 held by favorite sons. Another 13 are scattered. Including one delegate with a one-half vote in Alabama for Gov. Lester G. Maddox of Georgia whose home state delegation is entirely uncommitted.

Says Exposure Caused Drop

WASHINGTON (AP) — Vice President Hubert H. Humphrey's advisers say his sharp drop in the latest presidential popularity poll is due to wide exposure Richard M. Nixon got during the Republican National Convention.

They say they believe Humphrey will recover in the standings as soon as the Democrats get their crack at the national television audience when they hold their own nominating convention next week in Chicago.

The advisers, however, aren't rejecting the latest Gallup poll out of hand. It is understood they are concerned enough to have talked to the polling firm and to concede that if tradition doesn't hold their man could be in trouble.

The poll, made public Wednesday only five days before the Democratic convention, shows Republican Nixon widening his lead from 40-to-38 per cent over Humphrey in mid-July to about 45-to-29 in the period immediately after the GOP convention.

Humphrey people insist the poll result will have no effect on the convention outcome. They contend that the other candidates—Sen. Eugene J. McCarthy, Sen. George S. McGovern of South Dakota and Gov. Lester Maddox of Georgia—have not shown any greater popularity among the delegates.

After their talks with the Gallup people, Humphrey advisers said Barry Goldwater showed substantial improvement in the polls immediately after the 1964 GOP convention that nominated him.

But it was a temporary rise. Thus, the argument goes that Goldwater's and Nixon's showings were improved by saturation news coverage of their conventions.

Humphrey advisers expect the vice president will show a similar gain in the polls after the Democratic convention, if he is nominated. And Humphrey predicts he will be nominated on the first ballot.

The poll came out the same day that Sen. Edward M. Kennedy repeated that he is not running for office in 1968.

Some Democratic leaders think only the Kennedy name on the ticket would assure Humphrey of victory against Nixon this fall. But Humphrey is represented as feeling that Kennedy means exactly what he says and is out of the running as a potential presidential or vice presidential candidate at the convention.

Humphrey, who is working on his acceptance speech, is presumably also looking over again the names of those who might add strength to a Humphrey ticket.

Much of the recent speculation centers on Sargent Shriver, a Kennedy brother-in-law who is ambassador to Paris, New Jersey Gov. Richard Hughes, Oklahoma Sen. Fred Harris, former North Carolina Gov. Terry Sanford and San Francisco Mayor Joseph Alioto.

But Humphrey is said to be insisting that the list is still open and that two of his oppo-

Prison Uprising Crushed

COLUMBUS, Ohio (AP) — A rebellion by Ohio Penitentiary inmates was crushed Wednesday by police and National Guardsmen, who blasted through prison walls to rescue nine penitentiary guards held hostage for nearly 30 hours.

Five of the inmates who had threatened to burn the guards to death were killed in the attack and 10 others were injured. The hostages escaped injury.

State Corrections chief Maury C. Koblenz said the inmates "overplayed their hand and lost." The inmates had threatened to kill the hostages if certain demands weren't met or if a rescue by force was attempted.

"They had won two big items but lost everything when they ignored our ultimatum," Koblenz said.

That ultimatum, delivered at 2:30 p.m. Wednesday, gave the inmates 15 minutes to surrender and release the guards.

The fifteen minutes passed, the hostages were not freed and two dynamite blasts were set off seconds apart. One shattered the outside wall of cells where the prisoners were, the other ripped the roof off the cell block.

Columbus policemen, state highway patrolmen and National Guardsmen streamed through the hole in the wall and down ropes from the roof. Staccato bursts of automatic rifle fire and the roar of shotguns was heard seconds later.

The nine hostages were freed a few minutes later. The rebellion by about 300 of the 2,500 prison inmates was over.

The two exhibits of interest to the Kansas Citians and St. Louisians were the police exhibits from those two cities. The exhibits gave them an insight on activities of their law enforcement agencies as well as explain qualifications for police officers.

The St. Louis police have been holding daily demonstrations with the K-Corps, their police dogs, which already have entertained thousands.

Weapons on Display

Near the main entrance to the fairgrounds is a display of armed services equipment from missiles to artillery. Included in this area is an exhibit of the United States Air Force. A contingent of men is on duty at that area explaining the various weapons and other equipment.

Friday is Kids Day at the fair when children 12 years and under will be admitted to the fair free. Children will also receive reduced rides on the midway.

Governor Thomas F. Eagleton, a candidate for U.S. Senator; Secretary of State James C. Kirkpatrick; W.S. "Bill" Morris, candidate for Lt. Wichita Torn By Violence

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — Authorities took steps today to head off another night of violence on the city's predominantly Negro northeast side which has been rocked by disorders.

A Negro boy was shot and seriously wounded shortly after midnight, touching off a second successive overnight fury of assaults, burglaries, arson and vandalism.

Mayor Bill Anderson ordered all city taverns, liquor stores and private clubs closed indefinitely, and placed an immediate ban on the sale of guns and ammunition. Also banned was the sale of gasoline in carry-home containers.

Police said Lawrence Hytche, 19, was shot in the abdomen by an unknown assailant. Another Negro youth, Maceo Thompson, 18, was treated for a cut.

editor Oldrich Svestka as one of the pro-Soviet members, but later broadcasts dropped his name.

He was reported arrested by Soviet troops Wednesday, although he has come out against some of Dubcek's policies in the past.

Dubcek himself was still in Soviet custody, along with other leading members of his liberal regime.

The radio said a general strike started in the South Bohemian district to protest the occupation.

The radio also called on the army to protect President Ludvik Svoboda and not to take orders from anyone except from the legal government.

Czechoslovak secret police, who have kept in the background since Dubcek took over in January, were overruling prominent writers and journalists.

Witnesses reported hundreds of political prisoners were arriving at Pankraz Prison.

Meanwhile an American Embassy motor convoy taking U.S. citizens out of the country cleared a checkpoint outside Prague and was on its way to the West German border crossing point at Rozvadov.

Embassy officials said a Czechoslovak motorcycle policeman was escorting the convoy of about 20 embassy and private cars.

Dozens of British, Dutch and West German cars joined the American convoy.

Among the Americans was actress Shirley Temple Black, who left the tourist-flooded Alcron Hotel clutching a bouquet of red roses given her by a weeping chamber maid.

Czechoslovakia's chief of state and Parliament insisted that the Russians and their allies—Poles, East Germans, Hungarians and Bulgarians—free captive liberal leaders and go home, leaving the nation to pursue its freer brand of communism.

"There is no way back from freedom and democracy for Czechoslovakia," Svoboda said in an address over the clandestine radio station.

"The situation must be solved rapidly and the troops must leave," the 72-year-old president said, adding that he hoped a solution could be reached today.

Radio Prague, operating from a secret location since Russians occupied its regular quarters, broadcast an unconfirmed report that the commander of the Soviet troops, Gen. Ivan G. Pavlovsky, demanded that government members still free form a new cabinet without followers of Dubcek.

The broadcast said the general was reported to have threatened that, if this was not done by tonight, the Russians would form a new government with persons of their own choice.

Create Loan Fund

intended to help students obtain funds to attend the college, and qualifies the school to obtain matching federal funds. (Democrat-Capital photo)

JuCo Approved For Veterans' Loans

Fred Davis, president of State Fair Community College, told Sedalia Lions Club members at their noon meeting Wednesday the college had been approved by the Veteran's Administration for veteran's benefit loans.

Davis made the announcement shortly after the Lions presented the college a $300 check, to be used as a student loan fund "on a revolving basis."

The presentation was made by Don Buller, president of the Lions Club.

Davis said the check made it possible for the college to seek and obtain an additional $2,700 in matching funds from the federal government for student loans.

He said that gave the Lions' investment in the college a significance of which the club could be proud.

Davis reported the junior college applied to the Veteran's Administration July 15 for approval of its courses so that veterans could obtain loans to attend the college.

He said a letter of approval from Paul Smelser, director of veterans education, was received Tuesday.

In a brief talk before the Lions, Davis said the college's building program is progressing well and that the college has received assurance it can occupy the site by Sept. 16, opening day of school.

He said that thus far three of the buildings are basically complete. These are the library, the student center and the administrative office building. The latter, Davis said, will probably be occupied by Sept. 2.

Davis also touched on enrollment prospects for the college. He said a conservative estimate placed enrollment five years from now at 1,000 students.

As of Wednesday, he said, 131 students had enrolled, another 40 or 50 were still expected to return their application shortly, while an additional 60 students may sign on during the registration period, Sept. 9-10.

After presenting Davis with the $300 student loan fund check, Buller said he hoped other civic clubs in the city would join the Lions by adding to the fund. The Lions Club was proud, he said, to be first to donate to the fund.

The objective, he said, was to make it create a fund providing an "inexpensive loan for young people desiring higher education at the...college."

Buller told Davis the only stipulation for the fund was that it be maintained "as strictly a loan fund for educational purposes, either for academic or vocational and technical training services."

Recover Body Near Grand Glaize Bridge

OSAGE BEACH, Mo. (AP) — The body of Michael Jennings, 16, of Oklahoma City, was recovered Wednesday in the Lake of the Ozarks near Grand Glaize bridge.

Jennings and two girls were thrown out of a boat August 7 when it swerved suddenly. The girls were picked up safely by a passing boat.

Another Dip in US Casualties

SAIGON (AP) — American battle deaths last week numbered 159 killed, the second lowest figure this year, U.S. headquarters announced today.

The weekly casualty report reflected the lull in the war which was then in progress. The lull ended with heavy fighting last Sunday and the next casualty report is certain to be higher.

For the week ending Aug. 17, headquarters listed 1,393 enemy killed by allied forces.

American losses were 159 killed, 609 wounded and hospitalized and 575 wounded and treated in the field.

This brought the war's total U.S. death toll to 26,793 as opposed to 379,564 enemy killed.

The death toll was the lowest since mid-July when 157 Americans were killed at the beginning of the period marking the fall in combat activity. That was the lowest week this year and among the lowest in almost two years.

The figures listed 1,193 U.S. servicemen as missing or captured, a drop of 15 during the week due to missing Americans being reclassified from missing to dead.

The U.S. Command also gave an increased figure for the enemy dead in the previous weekly report which ended Aug. 10. The previous figure was 1,642 enemy killed but the command said re-evaluation fixed enemy losses at 2,102 for the week.

Sculpture With Purpose

"Sea Serpent," a stainless steel sculpture that doubles as a children's playground in Florissant, Mo. Koch Park was designed by Saunders Schultz, who is presently "artist in residence" at the State Fair's fine arts department. Schultz invites spectators to help him finish works in all media ranging from terra cotta and ceramics sculptures to painting and drawing. Schultz will conduct "participatory demonstrations" at the Fair in the Fine Arts Building through Friday. The display is attracting hundreds of fair visitors.

Caught Off Guard By Soviet Invasion

WASHINGTON (AP) — The U.S. government was caught flatfooted by the Soviet invasion of Czechoslovakia even though American intelligence experts considered such action possible. The signs of the drastic move by the Soviet Union were there. They apparently weren't read closely enough to make invasion seem likely.

Soviet and other Warsaw Pact armies had been on the move within striking distance of the Czech border, but U.S. authorities regarded this as part of the war of nerves waged since the Prague government started political reforms.

Another sign which, in hindsight, was ominous was the renewal of Soviet and Polish press attacks on the Prague regime.

And senior U.S. officers said the invasion was understandable in light of Moscow's fear that a closer relationship between Czechoslovakia and the West, particularly West Germany, would weaken the protective shield the Soviet Union has built through its satellite allies.

Yet, in spite of these signs, there is no evidence U.S. experts received advance word of the movement by Soviet and satellite troops across the Czech frontier.

In fact, President Johnson learned of the action, not through American intelligence sources, but by Soviet Ambassador Anatoly Dobrynin, about three hours after the invasion started.

Secretary of State Dean Rusk's first knowledge came when an Associated Press bulletin was read to the Democratic party Platform Committee while he was testifying on Vietnam policies.

And it was about four hours after the invasion that U.S. radio monitors picked up a Czech broadcast telling of the action.

According to reliable reports, the Soviet and satellite forces near the border were thought too small to indicate any intention to attack. This possibly diminished the concern, and thus the alertness, of U.S. intelligence analysts.

The failure to pickup early news of the troop movements could be explained by the Soviets having maintained radio silence, by their acting under the cover of darkness and by their apparent extensive use of aircraft to bring in troops and armor.

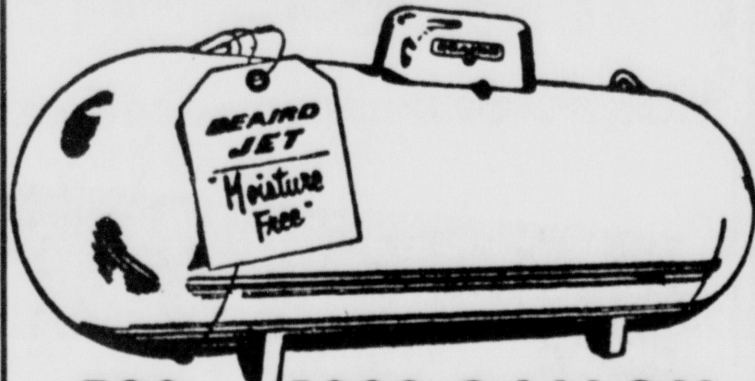

Horn Could Cause Problem for Thief

DETROIT (AP) — This may be a push button age, but the person who recently stole the minibike of fireman Larry Scarpace may soon decide never to push another button again, let alone steal again.

Scarpace, a clown in fire department parades for 21 years, had the 24-inch bike rigged with a variety of gags, including a booby-trapped horn. When the horn is pressed, the front end of the bike falls apart.

Arrest Two For Refusal To Leave

KANSAS CITY (AP) — Two young Negro men, one of them a major figure in Kansas City's civil rights movement, were arrested Wednesday when they refused to leave police headquarters during a demonstration.

About 10 other youths with them, protesting Tuesday's arrest of Council for United Action members who staged a sit-down outside headquarters, left the building when officers of the tactical unit were ordered to remove them.

Lee Bohannon, 23, president of the Black Youth of America, and Victor L. Shivers, 21, were charged with disorderly conduct and disobeying a police officer. Bond was set at $100, but both men were permitted to post signature bonds and were released within a half hour of the arrest.

Upon arrival at the headquarters, the group went to Police Chief C. M. Kelley's office on the third floor, but were not admitted. Kelley was conferring at the time with about 25 clergymen.

The group filtered through the seven-story building distributing leaflets which read: "Take me to your leaders, you have ours. Why must our brothers be brutalized and our fathers be jailed? You gave us your word then took our people. Freedom now!"

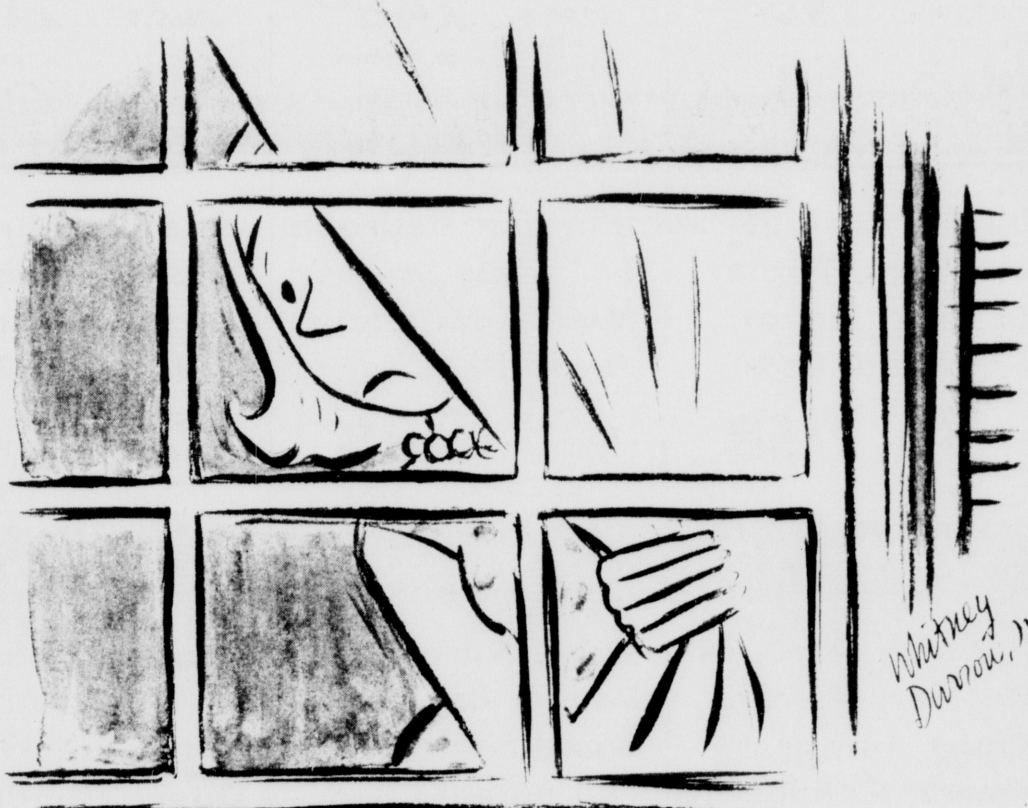

Nine members of the CUA arrested in connection with Tuesday's demonstration were sentenced to 30 days each at the municipal farm. The sentences were immediately amended to a one-year probation period by Judge Richard L. White.

Less than proud of your lawn?

Maybe the grass itself is to blame. If so, you can upgrade it by seeding WINDSOR right into your present lawn. WINDSOR, the improved variety of Kentucky bluegrass, has become very popular in this area because it is unusually attractive and hard wearing. Has extraordinary root strength and spreads underground to occupy bare spots in the lawn. Even thrives in extreme summer heat. Crossroads Comment

The Missouri State Fair, or any fair for that matter, would not meet with complete public acceptance without alluring aromas from freshly cooked foot-long hot dogs, hamburgers, tenderloins, fish, pop corn or what have you.

While the sense of smell plays an important part in stimulating the appetites of the thousands attending the fair, the sense of sight brings the most satisfaction because there are so many worthwhile displays to view on the grounds and in the buildings.

Noise? It's there too; some harmonious, some raucous.

So all the senses are appealed to.

—O—

Concerning olfactory responses our attention is called to one kind of smell that can not be duplicated — the smell of fresh-baked bread and how it gets that way.

Science comes forward with the answer to this aroma. It's all due to 1,4,5,6-tetrahydro-2-acetopyridine! U.S. Department of Agriculture researchers say they have isolated the key ingredient in the odor.

The compound quickly undergoes changes when exposed to the air, which explains why the aroma of fresh bread is so short-lived. However, derivatives of 1,4,5,6-etc. are more stable. The USDA men found that spraying week-old bread with one of the derivatives restored the fresh-bread odor.

This suggests commercial possibilities in the marketability of bread.

Science is wonderful. But no matter what the researchers discover they'll never duplicate what the mothers of another generation accomplished taking hot and steaming home-made bread out of the oven.

—O—

Now let's switch from the Department of Agriculture to the Federal Drug Administration and note a strange circumstance in bureaucratic operations that have a different kind of smell.

More than nine years after it first began considering a weighty matter, three years after it began public hearings and 7,800 pages of testimony, the FDA has finally decreed:

A one-pound jar of peanut butter must contain at least 90 per cent peanuts and no more than 10 per cent other stuff, like emulsifiers and stabilizers.

If that doesn't stick to the roof of your mouth, try another example of our federal men in action:

In 1965, a Florida trucking company applied to the Interstate Commerce Commission for permission to establish a route between Jacksonville and Miami.

After 38 months of legal negotiations, 13 months of commission hearings, testimony from 297 witnesses, 545 exhibits, and the piling up of a transcript of 16,000 pages, the ICC has granted approval.

—O—

So you would rather smell perfume?

About 375 pounds of rose petals are needed to make one ounce of attar of roses.

—O—

Here's a tip for the Postmaster General to consider: The ancient Incas maintained a regular mail service by means of relays of runners.

Washington Merry-Go-Round

Temporary Field Day for Lobbyists

DREW PEARSON AND JACK ANDERSON
WASHINGTON — Lobbyists always have a field day during the closing, hectic days of Congress. They know that when congressmen are in a rush to adjourn, they have a better chance of sneaking special-privilege bills past an unsuspecting public.

Seldom have the lobbyists been so blatant and successful as during the last weeks of July as Congress was about to recess. Fortunately, however, Congress adjourned for the conventions, thereby giving a breathing spell for the public and the president to catch up. That's why LBJ has been giving serious consideration to a veto for the highway bill.

Three significant bills were the objective of the truckers' lobby, with assists from the American Roadbuilders Association, the tire, oil, gas, and concrete lobby.

Lobbying push No. 1 was to limit farm co-op trucks from carrying commercial products on their round trips after delivering farm products to market. This bill was rushed through the House of Representatives after 7 out of 9 members on the House subcommittee received campaign contributions from the American Trucking Association, including Sam Friedel, D-Md., $2,000; John Dingell, D-Mich., $1,500; Samuel Devine, R-Ohio, $1,000; Albert Watson, R-S.C., $1,500; Brock Adams, D-Wash., $1,000; Daniel Rosten, D-Ill., $500; and Glenn Cunningham, R-Neb., $500.

— Senate Contributions —

All are members of the subcommittee of the House Interstate Commerce Committee which considered the trucking bill against farm co-ops. The bill was opposed by the Defense Department, the budget bureau, the Agriculture Department and the Department of Transportation.

Nevertheless, it was passed after only one day of committee hearings, brought to the House floor before the hearings were printed and passed under a suspension of the rules which permitted no amendments. It also slipped through the Senate in record form, where liberal campaign contributions were given to Sen. Everett Dirksen, R-Ill., $2,000, and Sen. Mike Monroney, D-Okla., $2,375.

Finally it slipped through the White House and was signed into law by the President.

Lobbying push No. 2 was staged by the truckers to double the size of triple-trailer trucks on the federal thruways, which Fred Schwengel, R-Iowa, warned would legalize small "freight trains" and Richard McLaughlin, Massachusetts registrar for motor vehicles, said would make it impossible for motorists to pass safely without at least half a mile or clear-sight distance.

The bill would permit trailer trucks' weight to increase from 73,280 pounds to about 138,000 pounds; would permit almost unlimited length, and increase width from 8 to 8½ feet.

Nick Kotz of the Des Moines Register and William Steif of the Scripps-Howard newspapers deserve credit for revealing the original truckers' lobby contributions to key congressmen. Their revelations were not quick enough to head off the farm co-op bill, but did sidetrack the truck trailer increase bill.

It passed the Senate with almost no objection at all, perhaps because the truckers' contributions had been discreetly placed in the campaign kitties of key senators. But disclosure that for a total of around $75,000 had been contributed for the truckers' lobby has made some congressmen run for cover, and the second trucking bill has been stopped.

Lobbying push No. 3 secured passage of the federal highway bill which has some important new features such as relocation help for people displaced by thruways and provision for fringe parking on the edge of big cities. But it also undercuts the beautification program, weakens the limitation on billboards, fails to protect parks and historic sites, etc., and forces some local communities to build thruways and bridges they do not want.

Mayor Joseph Alioto of San Francisco battled against the highway lobby to prevent it from building a freeway through the Crystal Springs area, 22,000 acres of parkland near San Francisco.

Mayor Alioto was vigorous in lecturing the highway lobbyists.

"You have overreached yourselves. You are worse than the Southern Pacific in its heyday when Hiram Johnson broke it up. When you get a complex of truckers, tire companies, concrete companies, oil and gas companies, you have one of the most powerful lobbies in the United States. And what the public doesn't realize is that the taxpayers are putting up 90 per cent of the money for thruways which the lobby wants to run through some of the most beautiful parkland in the nation."

"I have never seen such an arrogant array of power," said the Mayor of San Francisco. "You fellows should reread history. You have overstepped yourselves."

Though the highway lobby did not succeed in forcing a mandatory route through the Crystal Springs park, it did succeed in inserting into the bill a requirement that the District of Columbia build a thruway which the courts have ruled against — at least until public hearings are held — plus construction of the Three Sisters Bridge across the Potomac which D.C. officials do not want.

These are some of the reasons President Johnson has been concerned over the highway bill.

Note: When this column revealed on July 15 that John Kluczynski, Chicago Democrat and chairman of the subcommittee on highways, had bowed to the lobbies on certain provisions of the highway bill, the congressman issued a categorical denial. He said: "I don't associate with lobbyists and I don't accept contributions from them and I didn't yield anything to the lobbyists on this bill." It was later revealed that Kluczynski accepted $3,000 in campaign contributions from the American Truckers

"... And What Poll Do You Folks Believe?"

HHH Must Cut LBJ Ties Or Lose United Backing

By BRUCE BISSAT
NEA Washington Correspondent

CHICAGO (NEA)

Deep worry is being expressed in key Democratic quarters that Vice President Hubert Humphrey could win the Democratic presidential nomination overwhelmingly and yet, in effect, lose the election to Richard Nixon right here on the convention scene.

Says one party leader privately:

"More than any convention I can remember, this one can make or break the party nominee's chances in the fall."

What these key sources are saying is that Humphrey will be in great trouble unless, as victor here, he can stand up on the night of Aug. 29 and deliver an acceptance speech which reveals him to be unmistakably his own man, captain of the Democratic party, charting a course on Vietnam clearly separate from President Johnson's and expressing a general sense of new commitment with great vigor.

The concern is that Humphrey might not bring it off, that somehow he will fall short of asserting his independence and his commanding leadership with vitally needed conviction. Adds the same leader:

"I don't see daylight yet."

What is feared is not the uncompromising clamor of racial revolutionaries or of the peace militants who move on the outer fringes of Sen. Eugene McCarthy's campaign. Their potential for disruption is not considered decisive in its possible effect on Humphrey's November chances.

The alarm relates rather to the danger that a victorious Humphrey still believed too strongly tied to the President and subservient to his party leadership would turn off for the foreseeable future substantial Democratic elements best described as "Kennedy-oriented" or "reasonable McCarthy supporters."

These types, who will be heavily represented in the convention itself, are considered unlikely to lend a Humphrey campaign more than token energies unless they gain visible and audible assurances that the vice president can move quickly toward personal freedom of action both as policy maker and party leader.

Most critical, of course, is his stance on Vietnam. There are wavering delegates in New York, Pennsylvania, Ohio, Michigan, California and elsewhere who are waiting to see where Humphrey finally comes down on this issue at Chicago.

A good many of these delegates lean to Humphrey. Some may vote for him no matter what. But some may drift to McCarthy or to Sen. George McGovern of South Dakota if Humphrey falls short of their hopes on Vietnam or gives any other early convention sign of bondage to Lyndon Johnson.

McGovern is only one of several top Democrats who are voicing either public or private hope that the convention's Platform Committee will help Humphrey break free by adopting a reasonably dovish Vietnam peace plank which he can, without affront to LBJ, say he is compelled to accept.

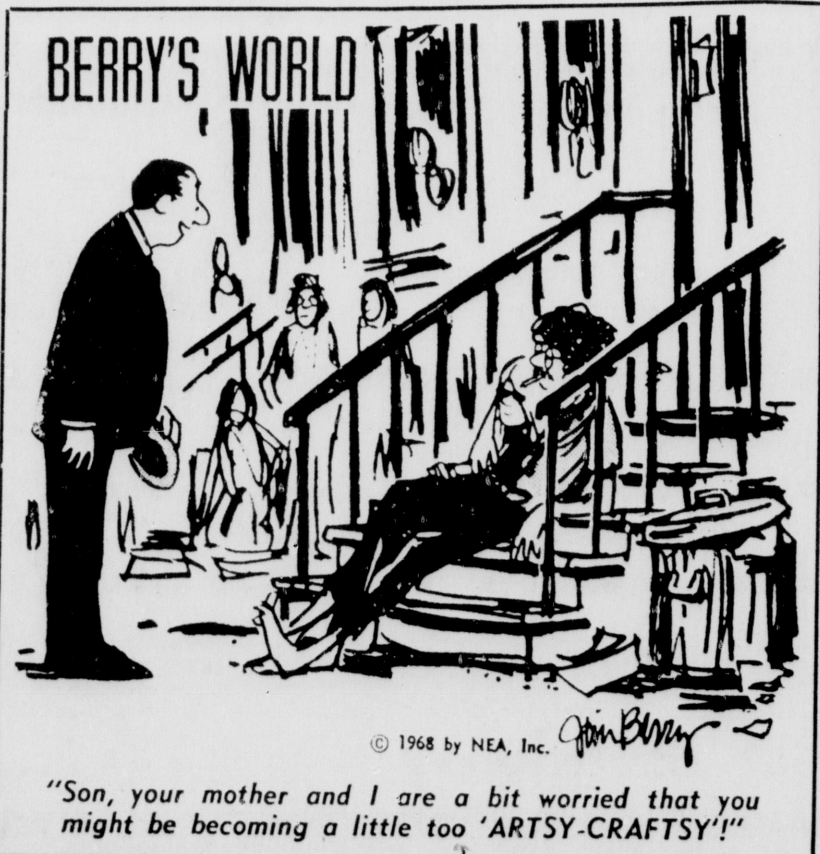

Some sources also are saying privately that they hope the Credentials Committee, even at cost to principle and true justice if that be necessary, resolves some of McCarthy's delegation challenges in his favor so he may not give the impression he has been treated unfairly.

The feeling is that any impression of unfairness, whether soundly based or not, would simply add to the developing delegate disquiet over Humphrey.

All of these worries define the paradox of Humphrey's position as the convention drags up to full movement. Virtually assured of the nomination here, he nevertheless faces an incredible series of man-traps that could seriously dim his November outlook even as he tastes the fruits of party victory.

Privately gained evidence suggests that some of the vice president's managers until recently were not facing this peril. They have been comfortably looking upon the Republicans' choice of Nixon and Gov. Spiro Agnew of Maryland as a huge plus for them, which virtually assures Humphrey's election.

But tough-minded Democratic professionals have doused this spirit of complacency with ice water, telling them Agnew could prove a strong GOP asset in the country's "law and order" mood and that the vice president will have to win on his own—without the soft benefits of an unwisely downgraded Nixon-Agnew ticket.

Anyone who draws trumps automatically will be burdened by misfortune on many occasions. Not that this column is opposed to drawing trumps. They should be drawn when, and if, you can afford to do so.

South ruffed the club opening and led a trump to dummy's ace. When both opponents followed, South relaxed happily. All he had to do was to pull the rest of the trumps and concede two spade tricks to the defense!

He pulled the rest of the trumps. West let the three of spades and deuce of clubs go. South started to claim but decided it would be easier just to play the hand out. He led a low spade toward dummy.

West hadn't relaxed at all. He had figured out the whole hand by a process of elimination and simply played a low spade.

Dummy's king won the trick and the jack was played next. West let that hold also and South's period of relaxation was over.

He might just as well have stayed relaxed since he was not going to make his contract. Dummy's king of clubs would take care of one of his four spades but South was going to have to lose the other three. Eventually the last one would be high but South would have no way to get back to his hand to collect a trick with it.

South really had no excuse. He would have been sure of his contract if he had abandoned the trump suit after the second lead and gone after spades.

There would be all sorts of lines of play left for the defense and we will leave them to you to work out. All sorts of lines of play—but with one thing in common. Not one would beat the contract.

Virginia has given us more presidents, eight, than any other state. The World Almanac says. Succeeding the Virginia dynasty of Washington, Jefferson, Madison and Monroe were William Henry Harrison, Tyler, Taylor and Wilson. Ranking after Virginia in presidential productivity are Ohio, seven; New York, four; and Massachusetts, three. Fourteen states have produced presidents.

Ho Expects Bombing Halt, Sees It as Key to Victory

WASHINGTON (NEA)

A few days ago this reporter talked at length with a man recently returned from a visit to Hanoi in which he had met with some of Ho Chi Minh's highest officials.

The Hanoi men in private conversations had said that they were certain President Johnson would be impelled to make some major concession to North Vietnam at Paris before election day.

Although they were vague about what that U.S. concession would be, the visitor was convinced the North Vietnamese were talking about a complete bombing halt.

In the Hanoi opinion, the U.S. concession would be forced on Johnson by the growing force of American public opinion.

Once this major concession was granted, these officials believed it would be virtually impossible for Johnson to reverse it.

That is, a bombing halt, once announced, would be permanent.

In these conversations, the North Vietnamese seemed to take it for granted that either Richard Nixon or Vice President Hubert Humphrey would be the next president of the United States. They apparently believed it was unrealistic to expect Sen. Eugene McCarthy to win either the nomination or the election. Nevertheless, they did not expect that the next U.S. president, whether Nixon or Humphrey, would find it possible to reverse Johnson's concession.

These Hanoi officials saw a marked upward swing in the U.S. peace-in-Vietnam sentiment beginning with the fall of 1967. They believe this sentiment has grown steadily since that time and that it will continue to grow.

It was this visitors impression that the Hanoi men were counting on that sentiment to win them the peace talks. He had the distinct impression that they would wait patiently and stall the talks along until they saw this peace sentiment had grown strong enough to guarantee them victory.

Apparently, a U.S. agreement to end the bombing would be a sort of test or signal that this country was willing to give up and admit defeat. The North Vietnamese would then be willing to help the United States find a face-saving way to exit from Vietnam.

If the above paragraphs are in fact an accurate picture of what Ho's men believe, it confirms the often-voiced thesis held by some old Far East specialists that Ho sees 1968-1969 as a repetition of 1954.

In 1954, Ho agreed to talks, but stalled while antiwar sentiment mounted in France. While waiting, Ho set up Dien Bien Phu to give the French government an excuse for evacuating the north.

If Ho is to repeat himself, then the U.S. Department of Defense and President Thieu of South Vietnam may be right in predicting all-out Ho Chi Minh attacks sometime between now and November.

THE DOCTOR SAYS

Ganglions, Not Serious, Are Best Let Alone

By WAYNE G. BRANDSTADT, M.D.

Ganglion, a rather common lesion, is a hernia or rupture of the enveloping capsule of one of the joints between the small bones of the wrist. It is sometimes called a synovial cyst. It is seen more often in women than in men but the cause is not known. It is not serious and, in most persons, produces no symptoms. A few, however, may complain of weakness in the wrist and of mild pain on making a tight fist.

A ganglion sometimes disappears spontaneously or when it accidentally receives a hard blow. Many ganglions have been treated at home by administering a sharp blow with the family Bible, but this treatment is not recommended because of the danger of a more serious injury. Following this treatment the ganglion usually returns. If it causes no trouble and is not too noticeable, it is best to leave it alone.

Complete surgical removal is advised by some authorities but this involves a prolonged recovery period. Most doctors prefer a simpler method of treatment, such as withdrawal of the fluid through a syringe, then injecting hydrocortisone into the cyst.

Another method that has been highly successful is drawing a suture through the cyst, tying it loosely in place and gently pressing the fluid out. A sterile dressing is then applied and every day the dressing is removed so that the suture can be drawn back and forth. After eight or nine days, the cyst is empty and the suture has caused a foreign body reaction which prevents a recurrence.

Q — I do a lot of housecleaning with ammonia. Are the fumes harmful to the lungs?

A — Although a heavy exposure to ammonia fumes following an industrial accident may cause damage to the lungs, liver and kidneys, the household use of ammonia would irritate only the nose, throat and eyes. This can be minimized by working with the windows open or by using an electric fan in the room.

Q — Can a 55-year-old woman catch chicken pox? Several days after exposure to this disease, I broke out with a large number of very itchy pimples all over my body.

A — Anyone who has never had chicken pox can get it. It is called a childhood disease only because that is when most people have it. Your description would surely fit this diagnosis.

BOSTON GLOBE: Birth Rate Versus One Baby. — The birth rate, it is reported, is now turning downward, but this trend doesn't lessen in the least the impact of just one new baby upon equally new parents.

All of a sudden a previously adequate home becomes amazingly crowded. Superimposed on the adult facilities are bottles, cereal packages, a wheeled vehicle, maybe a crib, bathing equipment, diaper containers and, before long, a play pen. On account of one infant, eight pounds by 22 inches, the place is jammed up. The material lands on chairs, stairs and tables. The kitchen overflows. Father has to pick his way through even the living room, where once the only traffic hazard was the coffee table.

What's more, all this baby stuff is incompressible. Every bit of it is deemed absolutely essential. As months pass, there is more of it instead of less.

This is why the real estate men won't worry about a falling birth rate. One baby means one remove to a larger place. Four children may fit in a three-bedroom house. After that, the parents begin looking around for living quarters about the size of a convalescent home, which by this time provides about the environment they think they need.

U.S. Forces in Europe Thinned By Vietnam War

WASHINGTON (AP) — The Soviet troop movement into Czechoslovakia comes at a time when the U.S. 7th Army, backbone of West Europe's defense, is at its lowest strength in years.

Because of the balance of payments problem, U.S. Army forces in West Germany have been cut to about 200,000 men and are due to drop even further by Sept. 30.

By contrast, the U.S. Army had about 273,000 soldiers arrayed along the Iron Curtain during the Berlin crisis of 1961. U.S. tactical air strength also has been cut to ease the gold-dollar drain and to beef up U.S. air power elsewhere. The Air Force's tactical fighter strength in West Germany is down to five squadrons.

Because of this—and even more because the United States has about 543,000 men pinned down in the Vietnam war—the last problem U.S. military leaders wish to face at this time is a crisis in Europe.

The attitude of U.S. military men throughout the period of Russian threats against Czechoslovakia this summer could be summed up in this sentence: "Leave us out; we have enough problems of our own."

The United States has no military commitment to Czechoslovakia, nor does it have even an implied moral commitment to that Communist country which in the past has been as hostile to the United States as any other

East European Communist state.

American officers who have assessed the relative military strength of Czechoslovakia and its Communist neighbors have felt it would be suicide for the Czechs to resist if invaded by Russia and other Warsaw Pact armies.

This realization also may have prompted the Czech leadership to caution its people against resisting.

According to recent estimates, a Czech army of some 175,000 men in 14 divisions faces overwhelming Russian, East German, Polish and other Communist force.

The Russian army has some 20 divisions in East Germany, plus four in Hungary and two in Poland. The Russians have based about 900 tactical planes in East Germany alone.

The East German army numbers some 85,000 men in six divisions, the Polish army some 185,000 men in 16 divisions. In all, Czechoslovakia could send aloft only about 600 fighter planes, most of them old model Russian-built MIGs.

Developments in Czechoslovakia may blunt efforts of some key U.S. senators to reduce U.S. forces in Germany even further.

Although the U.S. military chiefs have no wish to get into the Communist wrangle, they also have no wish to reduce U.S. strength in Germany.

A year ago, Gen. Earle G.

Wheeler, chairman of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, told Congress that he and his colleagues felt "there is no military justification for reduction of military forces in Central Europe."

The shutdown of American armed strength along the Iron Curtain was ordered into effect nonetheless, and is now well along.

Stymie Minnesota Hitters As Yanks Edge Twins 2-1

By DICK COUCH
Associated Press Sports Writer

Al Downing hopes Minnesota's Mayo Clinic can do as much for his sleeping habits as Minnesota's Twins have done for his pitching groove.

The little New York left-hander, plagued by chronic arm trouble since spring training, stymied Minnesota hitters for 8 1-3 innings Wednesday night and earned only his second victory of the season as the Yankees edged the Twins 2-1.

Today Downing will re-enter the Mayo Clinic, where his pitching arm passed doctors' tests two days ago, for the examination of another problem—his mysterious inclination toward instant daytime slumber.

Downing has trouble sleeping at night but can doze off at the drop of a hat in mid-day. The Mayo specialists have diagnosed his condition as narcolepsy, a controllable ailment remotely akin to sleeping sickness. They suspect there may be some relation between his sleeping pattern and arm miseries.

"They are going to give me sleeping pills before I go to bed at night and pills to keep me awake during the day," said the 27-year-old fastballer, who won 14 games for the Yankees last year. "They'll keep me for a day to see how I react. I hope they find the answer."

While Downing bolstered Yankee hopes for a first division finish, Detroit's American League leaders moved a step closer to their first pennant since 1945 by nipping Chicago 3-2 on Jim Price's pinch hit homer in the 10th inning.

Second-place Baltimore nipped California 4-3 in 15 innings and remained seven games off the pace and Cleveland trimmed Boston 8-2 for Horacio Pina's first major league victory in the only other games scheduled.

Pittsburgh blasted Cincinnati 19-1, San Francisco riddled the New York Mets 13-3, St. Louis whipped Philadelphia 8-3, Houston downed Los Angeles 6-1 and the Chicago Cubs swept a doubleheader from Atlanta 5-4 and 13-5 in National League play.

Downing, who spent one month on the disabled list and another in the minors trying to regain his pitching form, held the Twins hitless until the sixth and took a two-hit shutout into the ninth, when Bob Allison's 15th homer brought Lindy McDaniel out of the bullpen to nail down the victory.

Price, a reserve catcher, broke a 2-2 tie at Detroit with his second homer of the year, a one-out shot off Wilbur Wood in the 10th. Mickey Stanley's eighth-inning homer had knotted it for the Tigers.

"I used to catch Wood at Columbus in 1966," said Price. "We were the best of friend. I've pinch hit and tied up the game four or five times this year, but this was the greatest."

Boog Powell broke up the Orioles-Angels marathon with a run-scoring single in the 15th after Mark Belanger walked, stole second and took third on catcher Ed Kirkpatrick's wild throw. Frank Robinson and Don Buford homered for Baltimore, staking Dave McNally to a 3-0 lead, but the Angels tied it in the fifth on a two-out walk. Rick Reichardt's triple and Bubba Morton's double.

The Indians supported Pina, a 21-year-old right-hander making his first start, with an eight-run uprising in the fifth that knocked out Boston's Jim Lonborg.

Pina gave up eight hits and struck out seven, but needed last-out relief help from Vicente Romo. Chico Salmon, Dave Nelson and Joe Azcue drove in two runs apiece in the fifth with a homer triple and single, respectively.

It Was a Day for Hitter In Year for the Pitcher

By ED SCHUYLER JR.
Associated Press Sports Writer

The whiff turned into the wham and the baspaths looked like freeways. In the National League Wednesday it was the day of the hitter in this year of the pitcher.

Instead of swinging and missing as so often has been the case this year, the batters seemed to be hitting every ball thrown their way.

The five winning teams banged out 93 hits and scored 64 runs in six games. Even the losing clubs managed 50 hits.

The Chicago Cubs and San Francisco Giants started the barrage in the afternoon. The Cubs whipped Atlanta 5-4 and 13-5 and the Giants trounced the New York Mets 13-3.

Pittsburgh climaxed the assault at night with a 19-1 walloping of Cincinnati. In between, St. Louis topped Philadelphia 8-3 and Houston ripped Los Angeles 6-1.

In the American League, Detroit edged the Chicago White Sox 3-2 in 10 innings, the New York Yankees downed Minnesota 2-1, Cleveland whipped Boston 8-2 and Baltimore nipped California 4-3 in 15 innings. Oakland and Washington were not scheduled.

Pittsburgh's 19 runs were high for the majors this season. So were the Pirates 23 hits.

Matty Alou and Gene Alley both collected four hits and Manny Mota, Roberto Clemente and Bill Mazeroski three apiece for the Pirates.

Donn Clendenon accounted for five Pittsburgh runs with a three-run homer and a double, Alou drove in three and Alou, Jose Pagan, Mota, Mazeroski and Clemente two each. Clemente hit solo homers his first two at-bats.

Billy Williams drove in two runs with a pair of singles in the Cubs' first-game victory and then sent home seven more in the nightcap with a two-run homer, a single, sacrifice fly and a double.

However, Ernie Banks was the big blaster for the Cubs in the opener. The 37-year-old veteran hit a bases-empty homer, his 24th, in the first inning, and, then with the Cubs trailing 4-2, climaxed a three-run seventh with a two-run blast.

In the second game, the Cubs, who had trailed 5-0, went ahead to stay, 7-5, on Williams' two-run single in the sixth.

Willie Mays highlighted a six-run San Francisco fifth inning with a two-run homer, his 16th of the season and 580th of his career, and Juan Marichal coasted to his 23rd victory of the season.

While the Giants were batting in the sixth, their dugout and that of the Mets and the tarpaulin were searched after New York police received two calls that a bomb had been planted. Nothing was found and play continued after a delay of about five minutes.

The crowd of 32,023 was not disturbed during the bomb search.

Phil Gagliano and Tim McCarver both singled in two runs in St. Louis' victory over Philadelphia. The Cardinals took a 4-3 lead in the fifth on run-scoring singles by Gagliano, Bob Tolan and Roger Maris.

Not a Flying Mule

This is not a flying mule, but its bushy tail indicates it's a flying pony, with a monkey on its back. The team belongs to Jonny Rivers' Flying Mule show at the Show-Me Arena at the State Fair this year. The show is one of the major attractions given free at the arena.

The show also included a grey mule that has made almost 7,000 jumps in its lifetime, a black German Shepherd and a couple of other ponies. Show times are 11:30 a.m., 1 p.m. and 5 p.m. The show is from Camden-ton. (Democrat-Capitol Photo)

Powell Trying Out Knee With Minnesota Vikings

By MIKE BRYSON
Associated Press Sports Writer

Thirty-one is a pretty young age to start a comeback. But Art Powell, hoping a game knee that cut short a brilliant American Football League career will hold up, was trying just that today with the Minnesota Vikings.

Powell, a wide receiver signed by the National Football League team Wednesday as a free agent, caught enough passes in eight seasons with the New York Jets, Oakland Raiders and Buffalo Bills to rank second among all-time AFL receivers.

But he was curtailed by a knee injury last season and the Bills finally turned him loose.

The 6-foot-2, 212-pounder snared 478 passes for 8,015 yards during his AFL career and his total of 81 touchdown receptions is a league record. He also ranks fourth among all-time AFL scoring leaders with 486 points.

The Vikings also traded a draft choice to Baltimore Wednesday for another wide receiver, Rich O'Hara, the Colts' No. 3 draft pick.

In Florida, things were almost back to normal at the Miami Dolphins' camp, where a slight siege of the flu struck several players earlier in the week.

Coach George Wilson said the entire squad should be at full strength for an exhibition with Boston—one of four preseason games on tap Friday night.

Other activity that evening has San Francisco, NFL, at Denver, AFL; Baltimore, NFL, at Detroit, NFL, and Buffalo, AFL, vs. Houston, AFL, at Tulsa, Okla.

The Dolphins also announced they had traded John Roderick, who appeared in only one game last season after undergoing a back operation, to Oakland for an undisclosed draft choice.

Two seasons ago, as a rookie, Roderick caught 11 passes for 154 yards in five games.

In other developments around the training camps, Pittsburgh signed holdout Frank Parker, a defensive tackle. Parker was obtained in a four-man trade with Cleveland but refused to report to the Steelers' camp because, he said, he wasn't offered enough money.

The Boston Patriots placed four players on waivers, including veteran split end Jerry Lamb, who spent three years with Kansas City before being signed by the Pats as a free agent, and rookie linebacker Burl Wood of West Texas State.

Defensive tackle Henry Jordan practiced for the first time since he was injured in the College All-Star Game as the Green Bay Packers worked out for the first time since Monday night's loss to Chicago—second straight exhibition loss for the world champs.

However, it was doubtful that Jordan would be ready in time for the Packers' game at Dallas Saturday night.

Meanwhile, the Bears' defensive tackle, John Johnson, who received the game ball after Chicago's stunner, will be lost for at least two months because of a small bone fracture.

Johnson apparently played part of the game with the Packers with the fracture but it wasn't discovered until two days later.

Bank Retains Hold On Trap Shooting Lead

Farmers and Merchants Bank at Green Ridge maintained their hold on the Wednesday Night Trap Shooting League at the Sedalia Rod and Gun Club, by one lone "rock." They added to their score bringing it up to 1,216.

Battling behind the one point edge are Third National and Red Wing Pest Control who are tied for second with 1,215.

Other standings are: S and M Sporting Goods 1,211; State Fair Restaurant and Ray's Skelly Service Green Ridge, both with 1,210; Le Roy's Steak House and Cash Hardware both with 1,209; Vic's Package Store, 1,201; Central Mo. Real Estate 1,200 and Bill and Marcia's Cafe 1,126.

High teams for the night were: Bill and Marcia's 101x125; Third National Bank, Red Wing Pest Control and S and M Athletic stores each with 100x125.

Individual highs were Bill Nichols of Clinton with 25x25 and Chuck Williams, Sedalia, 24x25.

The League has three weeks of shooting left for the season.

Lead Cards To Victory Over Phils

PHILADELPHIA (AP) Dick Hughes, who won 16 games for the St. Louis Cardinals last year, hurled five and one-third scoreless innings Thursday night to lead the world champions to an 8-3 victory over the Philadelphia Phillies.

Hughes, who has been bothered with an injury most of this season, allowed only two hits after replacing starter Steve Carlton in the fourth. Hughes record is now 2-2.

Three St. Louis errors and four Phillie singles gave Philadelphia a 3-1 lead after four innings.

But the Red Birds took a 4-3 lead in the fifth on run-scoring singles by Phil Gagliano, Bobby Tolan and Roger Maris.

Catcher Tim McCarver singled two more home in the fourth and seventh, and Dal Maxvill singled and scored on Gagliano's double in the eighth.

Saints Players Talk About Division Title

NEW ORLEANS, La. (AP) — A large number of New Orleans Saints players are boldly talking about a divisional championship in the National Football League this winter—sheer audacity, perhaps even lunacy, for a second-year expansion team.

"I'm glad they feel that way," says Tom Fears, head coach of the Saints, who astonished the gridiron goldmining ranks a year ago.

"I have to be more realistic than optimistic though," adds Fears.

The Saints were switched to the NFL's Century Division this year—joining St. Louis, Cleveland and Pittsburgh.

"We're in this to win the division. That's our aim. We would like to very much. So we'll be preparing with that thought in mind," Fears says. "But I'm not saying we're going to win our division."

A year together and the acquisition of four key players spell improvement for New Orleans. The quarter: Dave Parks, a split end who ranks with the best in the NFL; tight end Monty Stickles, a savage blocker; and pass defenders Roff Fichtner and Elbert Kimbrough.

The Saints won three games last fall, equalling the mark for any first-year team. At the same time the Saints averaged 77,000-plus per home game, fourth best in NFL history.

Bill Kilmer will quarterback the Saints—holding the key to much of the team's 1968 successes, or failures.

"We're all aware of the second-year lull, one which Atlanta experienced last season," admits Kilmer. "But one of our shortcomings, a strong offensive line, can't help but improve. And our defense is good."

Randy Schultz and Don McCall are developing into proficient ballcarriers. Rookie full-back Tony Baker, a free agent, has promise of future greatness. So even if Jimmy Taylor doesn't come through the Saints expect to be able to gain more yardage on the ground.

Second-year-man Danny Abramowicz, 721 yards on 50 catches with six touchdowns a year ago, has been moved from split end to flanker. With Parks, Stickles and Abramowicz—backed up by 9.4 John Gilliam—the Saints are in good shape for receivers.

The offensive interior line is still the weak spot, but appears somewhat better. Tackle Jerry Sturm is performing well and guard Del Williams, a second-year man, is coming fast.

POLLY'S POINTERS
Old Mailboxes Make
Ideal Bird Houses

By POLLY CRAMER

DEAR POLLY—In our neighborhood, the Post Office Department is increasing the foot route, thus leaving a number of empty rural mailboxes. It occurred to me they would make ideal bird houses by opening the door for a front porch, then inserting a wood front with the appropriate-sized hole for the birds to go in. Give this new bird house a pretty coat of paint and, of course, move it to a tree in the back yard.

I have a good idea for lengthening curtains. Add a foot, or whatever is needed, of contrasting material at the top. Put the usual rod pocket at the top and a rod pocket just above the seam line where the addition was put. In this new lower pocket, insert an additional rod which need not be fastened to the wall unless desired. When the material is shirred evenly on both rods, it gives the effect of a neat, trim valance. I used turquoise on white curtains as my bedspread is turquoise and the effect is beautiful. I also made tiebacks to match the new top.—MRS. R. H. W.

Polly's Problem

DEAR POLLY—The Pointers are such a help, I wondered if someone can tell me of some ways to use buttons as decorations. I have so many of all kinds and colors.—M. B.

DEAR POLLY—I am answering Vilma's problem of a noisy sink. It was most likely installed without a vent pipe or, if there is one, it has become accidentally stopped up. It always will make that noise unless one has a vent pipe that is open.—MINTA

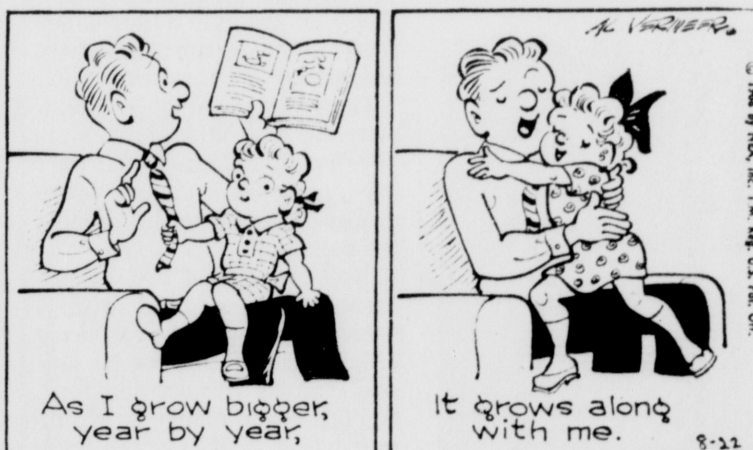

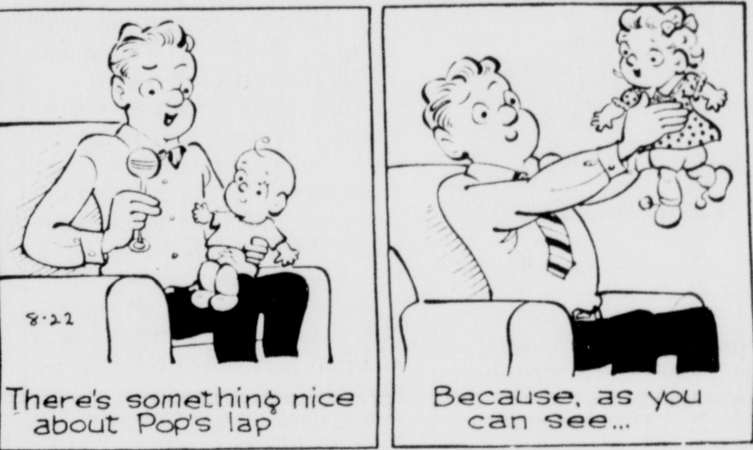

DEAR POLLY—I have found that snap-on plastic shower curtain hooks are ideal for hanging baby's rattles and toys onto his crib. These hooks come in colors, are strong, keep the toys handy and in view and, best of all, keep them off the floor.

To solve the problem of fights between my children over who gets the gift in a cereal box, potato chip bag and so on, I put all these prizes into one giant "grab bag." This bag is brought out on rainy days and also provides party favors. This saves time and money that would be spent in shopping for small gifts.—CYNDI

Strategy Meeting

Wednesday brought forth a strategy meeting among members of the Democratic Party running for office this year. In the governor's suite at the Administration building, they are, left to right, Delton Houchens, State Democratic Committee Chairman; Lt. Gov. Thomas Eagleton, running for U. S.

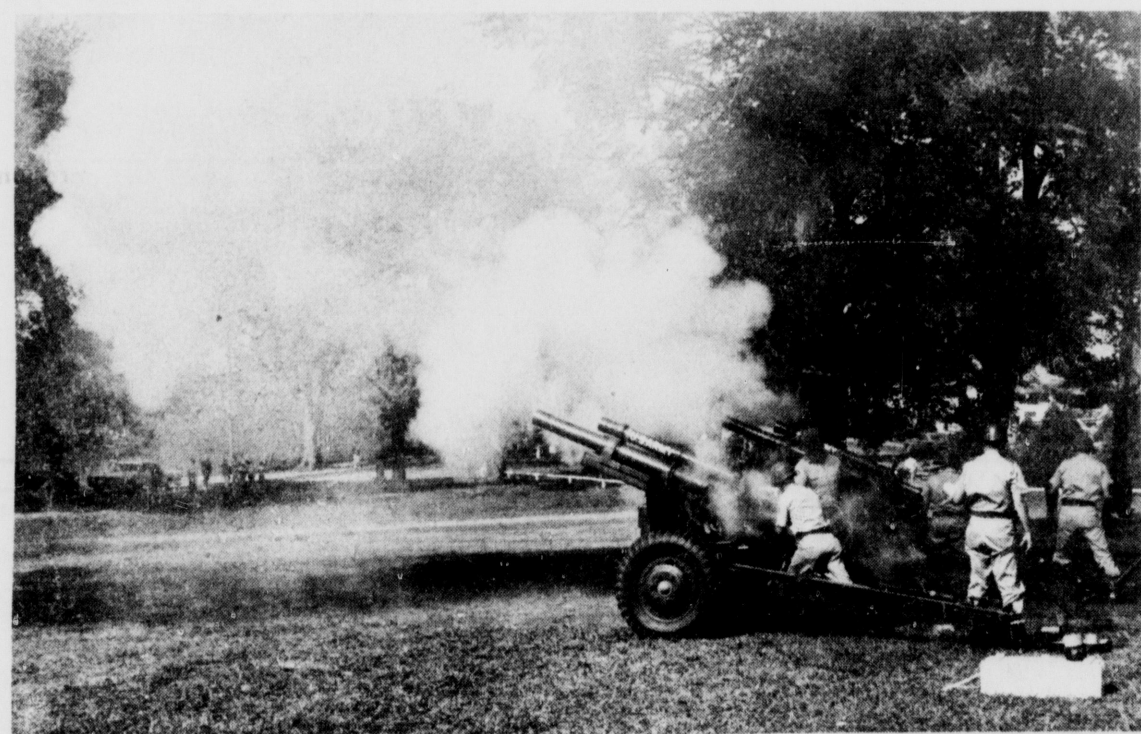

Senate; Gov. Warren Hearnes, running for reelection; Secretary of State James Kirkpatrick, running for re-election; W. S. (Bill) Morris, seeking the Lt. Governorship; and Attorney General Norman Anderson, running for reelection.

Pays Own Admission

Governor Warren E. Hearnes paid his own admission fee and that of his party as he arrived at the state fair to mark Governor's Day Wednesday.

Startling Net Upsets

BROOKLINE, Mass. (AP) — This is supposed to be the United States' year in the national tennis championships but somebody had better hurry up and tell the Americans before time runs out.

The 88th annual amateur tournament entered its seventh day at Longwood today and officials were frankly afraid to think what might happen next because of the number of startling upsets so far.

There are only four Americans among the nine survivors in the men's singles. In doubles, the United States has only three teams left heading into the quarter-finals.

Army Lt. Arthur Ashe, who arrived five days late because of play in the Davis Cup inter-zone matches with Spain, remained America's best bet to win the singles title, which has gone to Australia 10 times and to Mexico and Spain once each since Tony Trabert's victory in 1955.

However, Ashe was one match behind as he met Venezuela's Humphrey Hose in the fourth round. Clark Graebner, the No. 2 domestic seed behind Ashe, was the only other seeded U.S. player still alive.

Three seeded teams, including the No. 1 tandem of Bob Lutz and Stan Smith of the University of Southern California, bolstered U.S. hopes for winning the doubles title captured by Aussies the last three years.

Graebner and Charlie Pasarell, the top U.S. Davis Cup doubles team seeded just behind Lutz and Smith in the nationals, were ousted in the round of 16 Wednesday. Pasarell was eliminated from the singles 24 hours earlier.

Elio Alvarez, 21, and Tito Vasquez, 19, Argentine Davis Cuppers from Buenos Aires who are students at UCLA, shocked Graebner and Pasarell, needing less than an hour for a 6-4, 6-4 victory. Pasarell was broken in the eighth game of the first set and Graebner in the fourth game of the second set.

Lutz, who will be 21 next Thursday, pulled a major upset in ousting Cliff Richey of San Angelo, Tex., the nation's third-ranked player who was seeded fourth here.

"I'm getting tired of being regarded as just a good doubles player," Lutz said after his 6-3, 6-2, 6-2 victory.

Lutz had a tough assignment today as he met South Africa's Bob Hewitt, the top-seeded foreigner, in a quarter-final showdown.

America's seeded players in women's singles were on the sidelines after being wiped out in the third round. Margaret Smith Court of Australia, Virginia Wade of England and Maria Bueno of Brazil—seeded first, second and third respectively in the foreign rank—were among the handful of survivors.

Oakland Clippers Defeat KC Spurs

KANSAS CITY (AP) — The Oakland Clippers came up with an early 2-0 lead over the Kansas City Spurs in a North American Soccer League game Wednesday night that proved enough for a victory.

The final was 2-1. Kansas City retained its lead in the Gulf Division over St. Louis.

Ilaja Mitic opened Oakland's scoring with a 24-yarder after 7:33. Momcilo Gavric connected from 30 yards out at 10:21.

Concentrate On Golfing, Not Gabbing

PHILADELPHIA (AP) — Defending champion Dan Sikes, Jack Nicklaus, Julius Boros, top money-winner Billy Casper, U.S. Open champion Lee Trevino and other top professional golfers concentrated on golf instead of gab today in the opening round of the $100,000 Philadelphia Golf Classic.

The bitter, vocal dispute between the golf pros and the Professional Golfers' Association over who should run the rich tour temporarily was shunted into the background as a field of 156 started the four-day, 72-hole competition over the par 36-36-72 Whitemarsh Valley Country Club course.

While Sikes, Nicklaus, Boros, Casper, Trevino and company were the favorites, many eyes were turned on young Bob Murphy, the Brooklyn native who came within a stroke of tying last week's Westchester Classic. He led the first three rounds only to lose when Boros dropped a 15-foot pressure putt on the final green.

A rookie on the tour, the 24-year-old Murphy indicated a liking for the 6708-yard Whitemarsh course with a four-under par 68 in the pro-am tournament Wednesday.

The 1965 U.S. Amateur champion and 1966 NCAA king, Murphy had five birdies and only one bogey on a course which places a premium on keeping the ball in play.

Sikes, winner of two tournaments this year and with a bankroll already totalling $98,562, is shooting for his second straight $100,000-plus tour. His last-round charge at Whitemarsh to overtake George Archer a year ago made him a member of hundred-grand club in 1967. He won with rounds of 71-68-69-68—276.

All the 1968 tour champions with the exception of Arnold Palmer are in the starting field, which will be cut to the top 60 and ties after 36 holes.

Carlisle Favored

YONKERS, N.Y. (AP) — Carlisle, with the Billy Haughton in the sulky, is favored to win the $50,000 United Nations Trot tonight and sweep Yonkers Raceway's $100,000 International series. The 5-year-old stallion took the $50,000 Gotham Trot a week ago.

Flamboyant, who finished second in the Gotham, again will race as an entry with Carlisle and the Haughton duo is the 8-5 choice to do it again for the United States in the UN, which is at 1½ miles.

Earl Larid, Sir Faffee and Grandpa Jim, all of the USA, Fresh Yankee and Governor Ambro of Canada, Seigneur of France and Big Lama of Sweden, complete the UN field.

Invite KC Royals To Back AAA Club

OMAHA, Neb. (AP) — The mayor's advisory committee unanimously voted to invite the Kansas City Royals to back a triple-A baseball club in Omaha following a meeting Wednesday with representatives of the expansion club and the Chicago Cubs.

The Cubs, represented by Gene Lawing, manager of farm system operations, had no specific offers.

Cedric Tallis, the Royals' executive vice president and general manager, promised the Royals would support the Mustangs, Omaha's pro football team, and the college baseball world series here annually. He also pointed out that Omaha is in Kansas City's "prime drawing area."

Shuts Out Iowa Team In Congress

WICHITA, Kan. (AP) — Milwaukee got five — hit pitching from Stan Wagner Wednesday night to shut out Slater, Iowa, 9-0 in the National Baseball Congress tournament.

In two elimination games, Eureka, Calif., defeated Little Rock, Ark., 4-3, and Jackson, Miss., shelled Gomer, Ohio, 12-0.

A three-run home run by Milwaukee's Jim VanderWetter in the fourth inning highlighted the frame's five runs.

California, now with a 3-1 record and in the fourth round of the losers' bracket, capitalized on home runs by Gary Sanserino and Dane Iorg.

In pummeling Gomer, the Mississippians sent 15 batters to the plate in the fifth.

Tonight's schedule:
5:30 p.m. — Boulder, Colo. vs. Stanton, Ind.
8 p.m. — Levittown, Pa., vs. Halstead, Kan.
10 p.m. — Slater, Iowa vs. Jackson, Miss.

Barsingerhorn Dutch Reformed Church, they're bringing you down. That's the story in the Netherlands as dynamite is used to topple the church, which dates back to the 1600's. In need of repair, the church was too big for current parish needs. (UPI)

Invasion Sets Back New Effort at Trade

By JOHN CUNIFF
AP Business Analyst
NEW YORK (AP)—The invasion of Czechoslovakia is a serious setback to efforts at improving trade relations between the United States and the Eastern European nations on the rim of the Soviet Union.

For various reasons a breakthrough in trade profitable to both East and West had seemed imminent. But these hopes were based on the belief that the economic liberalization of the East would continue rather than be thwarted, and that East-West tensions would relax.

It was against this very economic liberalism and the political threat it involved, represented in recent weeks especially by the Czechoslovakians, Romanians and Yugoslavians, that Russia and its allies applied their military might.

From the Communist side the intervention may signal a return to less trade contact with the West. As for American businessmen, it is bound to cause at least a long pause in their plans to invest in and trade with the growing economies of Eastern Europe.

Such hopes had caught fire in the past couple of years. Direct commercial flight between Moscow and New York was just one of the more obvious evidences of this. Far grander but less publicized preparations were being made for direct investments, in hotels and even manufacturing plants.

As the stigma of trading with the East diminished, such people as the Rockefeller brothers, who control International Basic Economy Corp., and Cyrus Eaton Jr. revealed plans to invest in Communist nations. Eaton has already done so.

From Minneapolis last year a group sponsored by the Chamber of Commerce and including men from several nationally known firms, left on a private trade mission to Russia. They were backed by the U.S. government.

Time Magazine two years ago led a tour by 24 of the highest ranking executives and financiers in America to five East European nations for the purpose of investigating trade opportunities. Almost every company involved could be classified as a blue chip.

Aiding this new spirit was the belief among many Americans that the Communists were beginning to show a better understanding of capitalist economies and their methods of operation.

At least, some businessmen thought, the Communists are now emphasizing consumer goods, instituting profit incentives, lessening their reliance on dictatorial marketing and following instead the laws of supply and demand.

The biggest support for this new spirit — perhaps even the initiator of it — was the Johnson administration, which believed that trade bridges not only would aid the economies of both East and West but promote peace as well. Trade, it is said, has its political ends.

Typical of the statements supporting East-West trade was one earlier this year to a congressional committee by Robert Roosa, partner in the investment banking firm of Brown Brothers Harriman and Company.

"Those of us from the United States who have traveled in Eastern Europe, almost to a man," he said, "return with the conviction that the countries represent the most exciting market of potential trade...anywhere in the world."

The possibilities of this big new market were belatedly appreciated by Americans. Other Western nations years earlier had shed their reluctance to trade with the East Europeans.

During 1965, Western Europe and Japan sold $3.8 billion of goods to the East Europeans, excluding Yugoslavia, and imported close to $4.5 billion from them.

The United States, though, sold only $139 million worth of goods to these countries and imported $138 million. These figures haven't grown substantially since then.

The Comecon, sort of an East Europe common market, includes nations with 330 million people, much more than the combined population on the European economic community and the European Free Trade Association.
